EXPEDITION

CHILE | PATAGONIA

Jan 25 - Feb 5, 2028 Twelve Days, Eleven Nights

Over eleven nights, we will discover three distinctly different sides of Chile: the magnificent mountains, glaciers and pristine wilderness of Patagonia; the immense salt flats, volcanic peaks and extraordinary desert landscapes of the Atacama; and the cosmopolitan sophistication of Santiago, with its celebrated wine country and the colorful artistic communities of the Pacific coast.

Our journey culminates with an exploration of Valparaíso, a remarkable UNESCO World Heritage city whose steep hillsides are adorned with brightly painted houses, striking murals, independent galleries and vibrant street art. Long celebrated as a gathering place for artists, writers and creative spirits, Valparaíso offers a fascinating glimpse into another dimension of Chilean culture.

Throughout the journey, we will enjoy exceptional accommodations, privately arranged transportation and thoughtfully selected experiences, with ample opportunity to appreciate each destination at a relaxed and rewarding pace.

Our accommodations are destinations in their own right. From the extraordinary architecture and wilderness setting of Tierra Patagonia to the refined desert sanctuary of Tierra Atacama and the sophisticated urban elegance of the Mandarin Oriental Santiago, each property offers a distinctive experience of Chilean hospitality.

PATAGONIA - TORRES DEL PAINE
4 NIGHTS - BECKONS TIERRA PATAGONIA

DAY ONE
JAN. 25

Punta Arenas to Tierra Patagonia
Our Chilean adventure begins with a private morning transfer from the Cabo de Hornos Hotel in Punta Arenas to Tierra Patagonia, situated on the edge of the magnificent Torres del Paine National Park.

The approximately three-and-a-half-hour journey is an experience in itself. Traveling north through the immense Patagonian landscape, we pass vast open grasslands, traditional estancias and the rugged, windswept scenery that defines this remote corner of South America. The route takes us through the gateway town of Puerto Natales before continuing toward Torres del Paine, where the landscape becomes increasingly dramatic.

As we approach the park, the iconic granite towers, snowcapped mountains, turquoise lakes and immense open valleys begin to dominate the horizon.

We arrive at Tierra Patagonia, one of the most beautifully situated lodges in South America. Its extraordinary architecture follows the contours of the landscape, with a graceful, low-profile design that seems to emerge naturally from the Patagonian steppe. Natural materials, warm lenga wood, expansive glass and thoughtfully considered interiors create an atmosphere of understated luxury, allowing the magnificent surroundings to take center stage.

Positioned along the shores of Lake Sarmiento, the lodge offers extraordinary panoramic views of the Paine Massif and the surrounding wilderness. Guest rooms are designed to bring the landscape indoors, with large windows framing the ever-changing mountain scenery.

The experience extends well beyond the setting. The lodge is renowned for its warm, personalized hospitality, exceptional cuisine inspired by regional Patagonian ingredients and its beautiful Uma Spa. After a day exploring the wilderness, guests can enjoy the indoor infinity-edge pool, sauna, steam room, open-air whirlpool and restorative treatments, all surrounded by extraordinary mountain views.

After checking in, enjoy lunch, settle into the lodge and take in the remarkable scenery. The afternoon is at leisure or attend an outdoor excursion before an exceptional dinner featuring regional Patagonian flavors and exquisite views from the dining room.

DAY TWO
JAN. 26

Exploring Torres del Paine
Today begins our exploration of one of the world's most spectacular national parks.

Torres del Paine is a landscape of extraordinary contrasts, where towering granite peaks rise above immense glaciers, brilliant blue lakes and golden grasslands. Accompanied by expert local guides, we will select from the lodge's extensive range of excursions according to individual interests and activity levels.

Possibilities include scenic hikes with spectacular views of the Paine Massif, wildlife observation in search of guanacos, foxes and Andean condors, and visits to some of the park's most beautiful viewpoints.

One of the highlights is the opportunity to experience the extraordinary natural beauty surrounding Lake Pehoé and the iconic Cuernos del Paine.

Return to Tierra Patagonia for a relaxing afternoon, perhaps enjoying the spa and panoramic views before dinner.

DAY THREE
JAN. 27

Glaciers, Lakes and Patagonian Wilderness
Another full day to discover the extraordinary diversity of Torres del Paine.

Depending on weather and conditions, we may venture toward Grey Lake and the immense Grey Glacier, one of the great ice formations of the Southern Patagonian Ice Field. An optional boat excursion offers an unforgettable perspective of the glacier's towering blue ice walls and floating icebergs.

Alternatively, explore some of the park's spectacular walking trails, remote valleys and viewpoints, enjoying the remarkable sense of space and solitude that makes Patagonia so special.

The region is also renowned for its wildlife. There may be opportunities to observe guanacos grazing across the steppe, Andean condors soaring overhead and, with luck, the elusive puma.

Return to Tierra Patagonia for an evening of wonderful dining and relaxation.

DAY FOUR

JAN. 28

A Final Day in Patagonia

Enjoy a final full day in this extraordinary landscape. Guests can choose from additional guided excursions, perhaps a more active hike, a scenic horseback ride or a leisurely exploration of the surrounding countryside.

For those wishing to simply relax, the lodge provides a wonderful setting to enjoy the scenery, exceptional cuisine and restorative spa facilities.

Our final evening at Tierra Patagonia provides a fitting opportunity to celebrate our time in one of the world's great wilderness destinations.

DAY FIVE

JAN. 29

Patagonia to the Atacama Desert

After breakfast, we transfer to Puerto Natales Airport for our onward flight to Calama, the gateway to the Atacama Desert.

The flight journey is expected to connect through Santiago, as there are no scheduled nonstop flights between Puerto Natales and Calama. We will coordinate the domestic flight arrangements to make this transition as seamless as possible.

On arrival at Calama Airport, we are met for the approximately one-hour private VIP transfer to Tierra Atacama, situated just outside the historic desert town of San Pedro de Atacama.

The contrast between Patagonia and the Atacama could hardly be greater. We leave behind glaciers, lakes and snow-covered mountains for an extraordinary world of volcanic peaks, immense salt flats and vast desert skies.

THE ATACAMA DESERT

4 NIGHTS - BECKONS TIERRA ATACAMA

JAN. 29

Arrival in the Atacama

Arrive at Tierra Atacama, an exceptional desert retreat set within a beautiful oasis on the outskirts of San Pedro de Atacama, with magnificent views toward the Andes and the imposing Licancabur Volcano.

Following an extensive renovation, the lodge offers a beautifully reimagined interpretation of contemporary desert luxury. Its architecture and interiors draw inspiration from the extraordinary surroundings and the region's rich cultural heritage, combining natural textures, earthy tones, traditional adobe elements and sophisticated contemporary design.

The result is a wonderfully understated property that feels deeply connected to its environment. Expansive windows and inviting outdoor spaces make the desert landscape an ever-present part of the experience, while the guest rooms provide a peaceful and luxurious sanctuary after days spent exploring the Altiplano.

The lodge is equally distinguished by its warm and attentive service, outstanding cuisine inspired by regional ingredients and exceptional amenities. Guests can enjoy the swimming pool overlooking the desert, beautifully landscaped gardens, the Uma Spa and inviting spaces designed for relaxation. The dramatic backdrop of Licancabur Volcano makes even an afternoon spent at the property a memorable experience.

After checking in, enjoy a leisurely afternoon to relax and acclimatize to the altitude. The hotel team will introduce us to the extraordinary range of excursions available and help coordinate activities for the coming days.

As evening approaches, enjoy the changing colors of the desert and a wonderful dinner beneath some of the clearest night skies on Earth.

ITINERARY CONTD.

DAY SIX
JAN. 30

The Altiplano and Its Extraordinary Lagoons

Today we venture into the magnificent Andean highlands, where some of the Atacama's most spectacular scenery awaits.

The journey takes us through increasingly dramatic desert terrain toward the high-altitude lagoons of Miscanti and Miñiques, two remarkable turquoise lakes set against a backdrop of towering volcanic peaks.

We will also explore the extraordinary Piedras Rojas, or Red Stones, where enormous formations of rust-colored volcanic rock contrast beautifully with the turquoise waters and surrounding mountains.

The landscape here is almost otherworldly, with brilliant colors, immense open skies and a profound sense of isolation.

Depending on the route and conditions, we may also visit the traditional village of Socaire, offering insight into the ancient agricultural and cultural traditions of the Atacameño people.

Return to Tierra Atacama for an afternoon at leisure and an evening of exceptional dining.

DAY SEVEN
JAN. 31

The Salt Flats and Valle de la Luna

Today we discover another side of this extraordinary desert environment.

We begin with an exploration of the Salar de Atacama, an immense salt flat stretching across the desert basin. The landscape is home to flamingos and other Andean birdlife, particularly around Chaxa Lagoon, where the birds feed in the shallow mineral-rich waters.

We will also have the opportunity to explore Toconao, a charming oasis village known for its traditional architecture and local craftsmanship.

In the afternoon, we venture to the spectacular Valle de la Luna, or Moon Valley, within the Cordillera de la Sal. This extraordinary landscape of sculpted rock formations, enormous sand dunes and dramatic geological formations resembles the surface of another planet.

As the sun begins to set, the desert mountains transform into a remarkable palette of gold, rose and deep red. It is one of the most memorable photographic experiences in the Atacama.

Return to the lodge for a final evening of dinner, relaxation and, weather permitting, an opportunity to enjoy the extraordinary southern hemisphere night sky.

DAY EIGHT
FEB. 1

Geysers, Hot Springs and Desert Exploration

For those interested, an early morning departure offers the opportunity to visit El Tatio Geysers, one of the world's highest geothermal fields.

Located at approximately 14,000 feet above sea level, the geysers are particularly spectacular in the early morning, when columns of steam rise into the cold mountain air as the first sunlight illuminates the surrounding Andes.

The return journey offers opportunities to observe vicuñas, Andean wildlife and the traditional highland village of Machuca.

Alternatively, guests may prefer a more leisurely day, perhaps enjoying the natural thermal pools at Puritama, a scenic horseback excursion or simply time to relax at the lodge.

The afternoon is at leisure to enjoy the pool, spa and extraordinary surroundings of Tierra Atacama.

This evening, we gather for our final dinner in the desert.

DAY NINE
FEB. 2

Atacama to Santiago

After breakfast, transfer to Calama Airport for our flight to Santiago.

Upon arrival in Chile's capital, we are met for a private transfer to the Mandarin Oriental Santiago, our home for the final three nights.

SANTIAGO, WINE COUNTRY AND VALPARAÍSO
3 NIGHTS - MANDARIN ORIENTAL SANTIAGO

FEB. 2

Arrival in Santiago
Arrive in Santiago and transfer privately to the Mandarin Oriental Santiago. The hotel provides a wonderful conclusion to our journey, offering a sophisticated urban retreat in the prestigious Las Condes district.

Set within beautifully landscaped gardens, the hotel is particularly distinctive for its expansive outdoor lagoon-style swimming pool, surrounded by waterfalls and lush greenery. Its architecture, spacious interiors and light-filled guest rooms create a refined atmosphere, with many rooms offering impressive views across Santiago toward the Andes.

The hotel is also known for its exceptional dining, with distinctive restaurants celebrating Italian and Asian-inspired cuisine, an inviting bar and attentive Mandarin Oriental hospitality. It is an ideal setting in which to unwind after our adventures in Patagonia and the Atacama, while remaining conveniently situated for exploring Santiago and the surrounding region

The remainder of the afternoon is at leisure. Enjoy the hotel's gardens and swimming pool, take in the mountain views or simply relax following our journey from the Atacama.

DAY TEN

FEB. 3

Chilean Wine Country | The Maipo Valley
Today we explore one of Chile's most celebrated wine-producing regions, the beautiful Maipo Valley, renowned internationally for its exceptional Cabernet Sauvignon and elegant red wines.

Located just south of Santiago, the valley is home to some of the country's most historic and prestigious wine estates. The scenic drive takes us through the fertile countryside, where vineyards stretch toward the foothills of the Andes.

Our visit will include a privately guided winery experience, offering an opportunity to discover Chile's winemaking heritage, explore the vineyards and cellars, and enjoy a tasting of some of the region's finest wines.

Depending on availability and the group's interests, we can arrange a visit to one of the valley's distinguished estates, such as Viña Santa Rita or Viña Concha y Toro.

A leisurely winery lunch, accompanied by regional wines and beautiful vineyard surroundings, will be an important part of the experience.

In the afternoon, we return to Santiago, with the remainder of the day at leisure.

DAY ELEVEN

FEB. 4

Valparaíso | Art, Culture and the Pacific Coast
Today we travel west from Santiago toward the Pacific coast to discover Valparaíso, one of South America's most fascinating and character-filled cities.

The approximately one-hour-and-forty-minute drive takes us through the central Chilean countryside and across the coastal mountain range, with the landscape gradually opening toward the Pacific Ocean.

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, Valparaíso is renowned for its colorful hillside neighborhoods, historic architecture, narrow cobblestone streets and extraordinary artistic character.

What makes Valparaíso particularly special is its vibrant creative community. The city's steep hillsides have become an extraordinary open-air canvas, with colorful murals, elaborate street art, independent galleries and artistic installations appearing around nearly every corner. Its bohemian atmosphere has long attracted painters, writers, musicians and creative spirits, giving the city a character entirely its own.

Our private guided exploration will focus on the most picturesque areas of the city, particularly Cerro Alegre and Cerro Concepción, where beautiful architecture, independent galleries, cafés and spectacular viewpoints reveal the city's distinctive character.

We will also have an opportunity to discover the city's maritime heritage, explore its historic streets and enjoy a leisurely lunch at a restaurant overlooking the Pacific.

Depending on timing, we may also visit neighboring Viña del Mar, known for its beautiful coastal setting, gardens and elegant seaside atmosphere.

In the late afternoon, we return to Santiago for our final evening in Chile.

DAY TWELVE

FEB. 5

Departure from Santiago
After breakfast, enjoy a private VIP transfer to Santiago International Airport for our onward international departures.

We leave Chile having experienced an extraordinary cross-section of this remarkable country, from the pristine wilderness of Patagonia and the otherworldly landscapes of the Atacama to the celebrated vineyards and vibrant artistic culture of the Pacific coast.

An unforgettable journey through one of South America's most spectacular destinations.

EXPEDITION ROUTE

Chile Discovered

Other than international flights to Punta Arenas and from Santiago, Chile, all flights and VIP ground transfers in South America are included.

We travel by land from Punta Arenas to our sanctuary, Tierra Patagonia. After our stay, we depart by ground transfer to the airport in Puerto Natales. There we fly to Santiago and then on to the city of Calama, where we travel by land to our lodging at Tierra Atacama.

Once restored by the desert, we head back to Calama Airport for our flight to Santiago. During our three-night stay at the Mandarin Oriental Santiago, we venture by VIP ground transfer for day trips to both Chilean wine country and the coastal city of Valparaiso.

Finally, a VIP transfer to Santiago International Airport readies us for our international departures. A seamless journey through one of the most spectacular and scenic places on Earth.

ROBERT S. KNIGHT

LEAD HOST & FOUNDER

For more than three decades, Robert Knight has devoted his life to crafting journeys that transcend travel and become something far more enduring: experiences that awaken the senses, inspire reflection and leave a lasting imprint on the soul. His work is guided by a singular belief—that travel, when approached with intention and depth, has the power to transform how we see the world and ourselves.

Robert's approach goes beyond visiting destinations. It is about uncovering what lies beneath the surface—engaging with culture, honoring tradition, embracing adventure, and creating space for stillness and personal well-being. Each itinerary he designs and personally hosts is thoughtfully woven, balancing movement with mindfulness, discovery with reflection, and wellness. He views travel as nourishment for mind, body, and spirit. Adventure invigorates; culture enlightens; cuisine delights; spirituality grounds; and attention to personal well-being ensures that transformation endures long after the journey ends.

Today, Robert Knight continues to explore new horizons and revisit meaningful ones, offering travelers not just access, but perspective. Through Earth Expeditions, he invites guests to step beyond the familiar and into journeys that are immersive, intentional, and profoundly human.

In Robert Knight's hands, travel becomes more than movement. It becomes an art form, a practice of presence, and a celebration of life itself—each journey a story, a memory, and a quiet transformation waiting to unfold. Each expedition invites travelers to engage fully and return home renewed and inspired.

EMERSON R. KNIGHT

HOST & JOURNEY DOCUMENTARIAN

From an early age, Emerson has been drawn to the outdoors. Whether hiking, sailing, camping under the stars or simply just exploring the wild, Emerson finds great connection and perspective in the natural world. This passion has been influenced greatly by spending many countless hours exploring the beautiful wilderness and rugged coastline surrounding Carmel, Big Sur and Monterey.

In early 2025, Emerson had the opportunity to co-host his first Earth Expeditions journey to Antarctica and Chile. This was a pivotal experience for Emerson and his relationship with exploration. Traveling to some of the most pristine and untouched places on Earth with like-minded people was an awakening experience. The vast landscapes, wildlife, and beautiful changing light in Antarctica left a lasting impression. It deepened Emerson's appreciation for how powerful travel can be to create meaningful life experiences.

As Emerson continues to explore, he hopes to inspire others with his curiosity and enthusiasm. Whether adventuring just down the trail along the California coastline or thousands of miles away in the polar regions, Emerson believes some of life's most profound moments come from simply going somewhere new, spending time in nature, and remaining open to where the journey leads.

Emerson can be found at the Earth Expeditions headquarters in Carmel by-the Sea, where he shares exciting travel opportunities with visitors. He continues to pursue his passion for nature and exploration, and in his free time enjoys playing guitar. Emerson will be assisting guests during their journey ensuring a more seamless, supported and enjoyable travels. He will be contributing to documenting the special shared experience of our group.

THE EXPERIENCE

IN THEIR WORDS

Every journey leaves a lasting impression. Hear firsthand from the travelers who have experienced the extraordinary with Earth Expeditions, sharing the unforgettable moments, meaningful connections, and rare experiences that make each expedition truly exceptional.

Robert, I thank you for inviting Connie and me on this Antarctic Adventure. It is a magnificent place relatively few people ever get to see, which in itself was a great privilege. Having traveled with you before and having known you for a long time, I expected this was going to be a great adventure.

Excellence is not an accident, and is the result of knowledge, experience, preparation, caring, and hard work. This trip was excellent. It exceeded every expectation Connie and I had. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts. We will see you on the next one!

-Patrick & Connie Caulfield ~ Antarctic Adventure

“More than a 5 star vacation! Our senses were totally engaged to include our sense of wonder. Extraordinary activities, gorgeous locations including one-of-a-kind opportunities to see the highlights of Japan, Bangkok and Bhutan.

Our hosts with Earth Expeditions were extremely attentive to our every need and expectation. The accommodations and dining experiences dazzled and impressed beyond belief. I will eagerly be looking ahead for another Earth Expedition transformational vacation. What a way to see the world! So many thanks!”

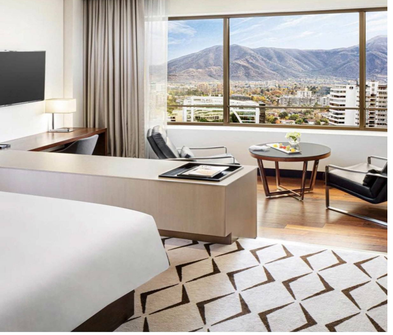

~ Gael Gallagher ~ 2026 Bhutan & Japan Expeditions
Carmel by-the-Sea, California

"Bhutan had been a dream of mine for many years and when this opportunity came my way it was the Universe telling me the time is now. I never imagined it would be the level Earth Expeditions provided. Quite honestly, it was above anything I’ve ever experienced in all my travels. This was a quiet, unassuming luxury that felt like being wrapped in a warm hug.

Every day was magical and everyone on this trip was a soul. I was meant to meet and share this journey with, pure joy. All amazing experiences but nothing compared to the peace I felt watching the sun rise over the peaks in Bhutan shining into the valley. Every day was an adventure and every moment a treasure.

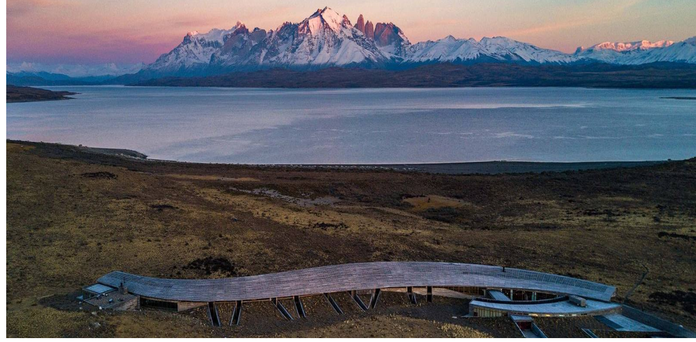

My heart is full and my soul at peace for having been touched by the beautiful people of Bhutan. It has been my great fortune to have met you. I carry your kindness into every day hoping we will meet again very soon."

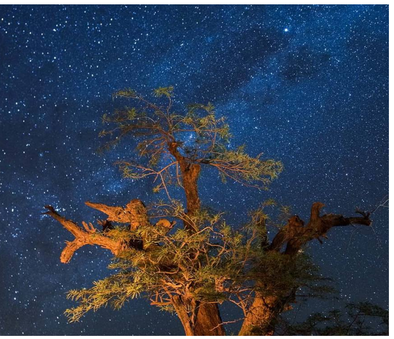

~ Penny Stolfe ~ 2026 Bhutan Expedition
Las Vegas, Nevada
